Grand Knights Comments

Fellow Brother Knights, Fall is here with shorter days and longer nights. October is the Month of Mary and is also the month of Columbus Day. Columbus may have prayed the rosary as he led his crew on a trip of discovery.

We are encouraged during this month to also pray the rosary more often, both for our protection and those whose lives we do not know, especially the unborn.

I also encourage you to make an attempt to attend more meetings. I understand that harvest time is here, but that is only temporary.

I am an empty nester who still works 40 plus hours a week and as your leader, I am at both meetings: I am encouraged and inspired to see your face at meetings or events. Do you not feel the same way?

As a member on a trip of discovery, your participation is greatly encouraged and appreciated. When we pray the rosary and are mediating on the mysteries of the decade, let us also be encouraged and strengthened.

Holy Mary full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women and Blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mother of God pray for us sinners now; and at the our of our death.
